 310 358 1860 Gold Dollar. Brilliant proof, rare.
 225 359 1879 Gold Dollar. Uncirculated, scarce.

[In the recent Catalogue of the Mercer sale, it is said, probably by a typographical error, (for under No. 274 of the same catalogue the statement appears that not more than 60 or 70 dollars of 1858 exist,) that the 1879 Gold Dollars are rarer than the 1858 Silver Dollars. The fact, however, is that (3000) three thousand Gold Dollars were struck in 1879, and not one hundred Silver Dollars in 1858.]

These coins of the old Kingdom of Cyprus, founded by the Crusaders, have a historic interest. When Saladin ejected Guy de Lusignan from Jerusalem, Richard the Lion heart, of England, gave him Cyprus, on condition of renouncing his claim to the Holy City. These two pieces were struck by his successors, who still claimed the title of King of Jerusalem.

The Superintendent of the U. S. Mint, Colonel A. L. Snowden, has authorized me to state, that he will furnish on application, to every bona fide collector, two sets of these uncirculated coins, at the face value. As was done in 1879, speculators (not the legitimate coin dealers) tried to secure these coins and to sell them at fancy prices, claiming that only 100 sets were struck. Colonel Snowden, however, stopped at once the sale to these speculators, and had a sufficient number struck ($1,000 worth of each denomination) to supply all bona fide collectors. It is particularly just on my part, to state that Superintendent Snowden shows an earnest effort to suppress the abuses and acts of favoritism I complained of, and to assist the legitimate efforts of legitimate Coin Dealers. I regret that I cannot say the same of the Director of the Mint. Notwithstanding all remonstrances, and the resolution passed by the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society of Philadelphia, the name of whose President—the venerable Eli K. Price—should alone be sufficient to secure respectful consideration on the part of a “public servant,” at the hour of writing, the Director has ordered the 150 Goloid Metric Sets, still at the Mint, to be forwarded to Washington, “subject to the order of the Coinage Committee.” In other words, we may again have to apply for these sets to some speculator, or some political bummer, or to people who are neither “the wives, the sisters, the cousins, or the aunts” of Congressmen. There certainly seems to be room here for the operation of the advocates of “Civil Service Reform.”
